

Nedgroup Investments

Unit Trusts

Characteristics

Unit trusts are investment vehicles that:

- Pool the funds of many investors into a single collective investment scheme;
- Invest in many different markets and market sectors; and
- Have a wide range of return and risk profiles depending on the asset allocation.

Benefits

The Nedgroup Investments range of unit trusts allows investors:

- A wide range of funds offered by a top-ranked manager;
- Access to our select investment managers act as responsible stewards of your hard-earned savings;
- Opportunity to save for a specific savings goal;
- Options to switch between unit trusts during the investment period without paying a fee; and
- Flexibility to choose how long they would like to stay invested.

Who should consider this investment?

The Nedgroup Investments range of unit trusts investments should be considered by any investors who:

- Intend to save for a specific goal;
- Want to choose from wide range of investments;
- Want to choose the size and frequency of their contributions;
- Require easy access to their money; and
- May want to switch between underlying investments.